What's Up, America? Second Edition A Foreigner's Guide to Understanding Americans By Diane Asitimbay

The second edition of WHAT'S UP, AMERICA? A Foreigner's Guide to Understanding Americans is another frank and fearless look at American behavior based on real questions international visitors ask. Asitimbay serves readers the American apple pie as she did in her popular first edition, but they also get to peek at what lies under the crust in this updated and expanded guide.

What's New in the Second Edition The book's second and expanded edition contains updated statistics and features a new chapter on sports called A Game for All Seasons. It shows readers how Americans play sports in schools from elementary school to college level and continues into the professional leagues.

Another new chapter takes a humorous look at our health care system in Ills, Pills & Medical Bills.
