Study Guide for A Tree Grows in Brooklyn by Betty Smith By Sabrina Justison

This literature study guide to accompany American author Betty Smith's classic coming-of-age story about female protagonist Francie Nolan is a tool for real learning for your high schooler and refuses to waste your student's time with busy-work. (Please note: this is the study guide only. A Tree Grows in Brooklyn must be obtained separately.) The guide by Sabrina Justison focuses on the literary elements FORESHADOWING and MOTIF, and explores the THEME "The Immigrant's Dream of a Better Life in America," and encouraging the reader to notice the author's masterful use of these devices without "academic overkill" that ruins the power of the story being told.

The guide is complete with background information on the author, vocabulary, comprehension questions by chapter (5 questions on average per chapter), suggested enrichment activities with ideas for further writing, and answer key. Appropriate for high school literature students at any grade level, the questions are geared toward College Prep level of mastery and articulation.

Too many literature study guides suck the life out of the book.
