Editorial Review

Review

"Evans' book brings a fresh perspective to the reign of Justinian by focusing not only on the emperor's wife Theodora, but also on her close associate Antonina. It also offers a gripping account of a turbulent reign and the struggles of court factions." (Geoffrey Greatrex, Associate Professor in the Department of Classics and Religious Studies, University of Ottawa, Canada)

"Evans' book brings a fresh perspective to the reign of Justinian by focusing not only on the emperor's wife Theodora, but also on her close associate Antonina. It also offers a gripping account of a turbulent reign and the struggles of court factions." (Sanford Lakoff)
