Editorial Review

About the Author

Efrat Haddi is a mother of three children with extensive experience in education and love for kids . In recent years, she is working with children in a democratic school where democracy is both a goal and a method of instruction. Democratic education brings democratic values such as justice, respect and trust to education, and includes self-determination within a community of equals. In her books she combine her life's experiences with diverse knowledge accumulated while working with kids over the years, all in a sensitive, positive and inspiring way. Her books are always filled with fun, and fun pictures.
