Private Prayer: The Secret Key of Heaven (Vintage Puritan) By Thomas Brooks

“The power of religion and godliness lives, thrives, or dies, as closet prayer lives, thrives, or dies.” This was the deeply held conviction of Thomas Brooks. As a pastor who knew his people well, he feared that many Christians do not understand the “necessity, excellency, and usefulness” of private prayer, and that many live in “too great a neglect of this indispensable duty.”

Focusing on our Lord's words about “closet-prayer” in Matthew 6:6, Brooks gives us a masterful treatment of a vitally important aspect of Christian's living. His aim is intensely practical, “to preserve and keep up the power of religion and godliness both in men's houses, hearts, and lives.”
