My Summer of Pink & Green (Pink & Green series Book 2) By Lisa Greenwald

At the end of My Life in Pink & Green, Lucy Desberg had just won the grant that would save her family's pharmacy--and turn it into a modern eco-spa. Now it's summer, and the work has begun in earnest. Lucy figures that with the spa opening and her sister, Claudia, home, she'll have a great summer. But her sister brings a new boyfriend, and their investor brings his extremely irritating daughter, Bevin. Plus there's a new spa coordinator in charge of the plans, and so Lucy finds herself at loose ends. What's a girl to do? A makeover, of course. But this time Lucy's makeover skills might not smooth over the cracks in her happy family...

Editorial Review

From School Library Journal

Gr 5-8-In this sequel to My Life in Pink & Green (Abrams, 2009), Lucy charms readers once again with her positive attitude and dedication to beauty, make-up, and environmental well-being. The Desberg family pharmacy is about to add an eco-spa with the help of a grant that Lucy won. Looking forward to a great summer, the 13-year-old must deal with a few disappointments and surprises. Her sister brings her boyfriend home to spend the summer, her grandma hires a professional spa coordinator instead of Lucy, and her family's investor brings his immature, socially awkward daughter to spend time at the spa. At the same time, Lucy experiences the ups and downs that come with first boyfriends and a best friend who seems to enjoy spending time with her boyfriend more than with her. Greenwald's depiction of the early teenage years is spot-on, and her use of "tips to have a great summer" at the beginning of each chapter is uplifting and affirmative. The plot connects all story lines nicely as a stand-alone or when paired with the first book. Recommend this book to girls looking for a modern story in which the characters are realistically portrayed.-D. Maria LaRocco, Cuyahoga Public Library, Strongsville, OH(c) Copyright 2011. #### From Booklist

This follow-up to My Life in Pink & Green (2009) follows 13-year-old Lucy and her family's preparations to open the spa that Lucy helped to fund through an ecological grant. The novel's handling of financial issues may not seem credible to a business major, but Lucy's peers won't care; the real business for Lucy is learning when to step back and when to step up, when to rethink her earlier judgments of others, and when to reconsider her best course of action in order to help the spa open on time. Well-drawn secondary characters add to this satisfying sequel. Grades 4-7. --Francisca Goldsmith
