An Accident Waiting to Happen: a life with ehlers danlos syndrome By Philip Howard

The doctors said I had unconfirmed haemophilia.

People said I was clumsy, a clown, an accident waiting to happen.

They were wrong.

I have endured a multiplicity of injuries including:

200 stitches; a broken femur; broken bones in my feet; 3 sprained ankles; several dislocated kneecaps; ruptured knee ligaments; a broken scaphoid; traumatic bruising to my shin and a dislocated shoulder.

These are the presents that EHLERS DANLOS SYNDROME bestowed upon me.

At fifty eight years of age I had had enough. I lay on the floor in my garage with the fallen ladder as my companion, listening to the siren of an approaching ambulance. I thought to myself “I have to find a way to make all this stop. If I survive.”
