Fish Out of Water By Abby Nye

Many Christian students find their faith tested upon entering secular universities. Today's colleges are rife with professors who are not only unbelievers, but who actively mock religion and morality.

With fresh classroom experience, college student Abby Nye details the loss of academic and religious freedoms. Includes tips for dealing with hostile professors, maintaining strong faith and honoring the Lord in one's academic career.

Perfect for anyone curious as to what's happening on the college scene today, including high school graduates headed to college, their parents, and college students already swimming in the strong current of campus liberalism.
