Editorial Review

About the Author

ROB KIDD sailed the Seven Seas under Captain Jack Sparrow for six months. During that time he chronicled Captain Sparrow's adventures and also learned much about the crafty pirate's youth, which is the writer's favorite subject to explore. As he has technically been deceased for a number of centuries, he pens his works through a channeler, and is forever grateful to the mystic Tia Dalma for teaching him how to possess great writers. When he is not spending time as a disembodied spirit, he enjoys golfing and traveling.
