Editorial Review

From the Back Cover

Voices have spoken
Throughout my life
Giving insight
To joy and strife

Stating their views
In perfect rhyme
They show me life
All of the time

Varied and true
The songs they sing
So I write down
Message they bring

Share magic, love
Sorrow and pain
Nature's beauty
Or just complain

Offer to you;
Come take a peek
You, too, may find
Solace you seek

About the Author

Cindy Smith was raised in upstate New York. She has worked a variety of jobs during her life--waitress, store associate, certified electronic technician. She is currently employed as an over-the-road truck driver with her husband. Cindy has lived in many states from Maine to Florida. She now resides in Indiana. Through all her experiences, she had voices in her head dictating poems. The voices would not relent until Cindy wrote the poems down. She invites you to eavesdrop.
